

LAND OFFICE REGULATIONS

Instructions Issued by the Commissioner as a Guide for Registers.

Washington, April 28.—The commissioner of the general land office has issued instructions to registers of land offices concerning the selection of lands by states and territories under grants for educational and other purposes, under regulations approved by the secretary of the interior last Wednesday. Under the new regulations the states will be permitted to make indemnity school land selections in lieu of fractional portions of legal subdivisions, which heretofore has been prohibited, and notice of all selections made by the state is required to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the lands selected are situated. A few other minor modifications are made, designed to facilitate the selection of lands by the state officers.

Instructions also have been issued to local land offices regarding the disposition of lands withdrawn from coal entries both as to lands known to be within a known coal field and lands outside of such fields. The local offices will be furnished with geological survey township maps showing known coal fields, and entries of such lands will be received. Lands heretofore withdrawn from coal entry and not released will be considered as coal lands. Coal fillings made within six days prior to withdrawals from coal entry may be completed within the time prescribed by the statutes, less the time from date of such withdrawals to date of special written notice of the filing of maps and lists in the local land offices. Lands not coal lands may be entered under any of the public land laws applicable to the particular tract.

COUNT WITTE OUTSPOKEN.

Former Russian Premier Criticizes the Council of the Empire.

St. Petersburg, April 28.—Count Witte, the former premier, in a characteristic speech in the council of empire today, dealt with the question of statistics in regard to expenditures and revenues of the empire. He took an advanced stand to a certain extent bidding for liberal support, criticized the paralysis of the council of empire, and said it was unwelcome to be called the upper house. "What sort of an institution is ours?" asked Count Witte. "Drifting aimlessly, avoiding its work, afraid to assert itself or proclaim its existence. Let us follow the example of the council of the empire, and take part in the country's business; otherwise we will be swept away as a useless piece of state mechanism." Count Witte's action is hailed with approval by the liberal press.

MAYOR CALDWELL DEAD.

Tooele City Loses a Valued Citizen and Business Man.

Tooele City, April 28.—Mayor William Caldwell of this city died today. He had been ill for two weeks with bronchitis, which developed into pneumonia. He was thought to be recovering until Friday, when he was stricken with paralysis. The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon.

Mayor Caldwell was 46 years of age, and was elected mayor at the last city election. He leaves a wife and seven children. His mother is Marguerite Caldwell, who is now residing in Salt Lake. Mr. Caldwell was an Odd Fellow. For some years he has been proprietor of the Caldwell hotel.

Printers' Ink Passes Banks a Bouquet

It's Their Millinery, However, That Is Giving the Firm a National Reputation.

The editor of Printer's Ink, a journal for advertisers published in New York City, writes Banks under date 24th inst.:

"In our issue of the 24th inst. there appears an announcement of your firm which was found excellent enough to be reproduced from your local paper in the department of 'Ready-Made Advertisements,' appearing weekly in the 'Little Schoolmaster's Department.'"

"We congratulate you on this fact and hope it may further stimulate your efforts toward good advertising."

The copy of the advertisement referred to can be seen by calling at Banks', 115 South Main street.

BELIEVE THEY HAVE BAD ONE

Ogden Police Looking Up the Record of Charles Johnson, Now Under Arrest.

The theory of the police that they landed a dangerous criminal when the arrest of Charles Johnson was effected Sunday morning, was strengthened yesterday by the finding of a number of files and other burglar tools in his room at the Broom hotel, where he has been since the middle of the month. It has been learned that Johnson, who is a middle-aged man, has been employed at the foundry of William Pearce on Washington avenue, and it is believed that it was there that he made some of the tools which were found upon him or which he had thrown away when his arrest was being effected. Johnson still maintains a dogged silence with regard to his case, stating that he will only talk through an attorney. He admitted yesterday that the tools taken from his room were his. He refused, however, to explain why he kept such a collection in his possession.

Trying to Open Door.

It appears that Johnson was at work on the rear door of the Watson-Plygare Hardware company at the time Officer Ed Morrissey came along and caused him to make an unsuccessful run to avoid arrest. But little could be learned about Johnson, other than that he came here April 15, and had been employed as a machinist since that time. The belief is that he did this in order to avert suspicion. All efforts of the police to get the tools to talk proved unavailing yesterday. He said that what he did tell he would tell truthfully, but he confined his giving of information to the ownership of the "burglar's" tools. Nothing has as yet been discovered that would lead to the belief that he had turned any tricks in this city previously. It is quite probable, however, that he has a campaign mapped out which if carried through successfully, would have netted him considerable plunder. By working as a machinist at the Pearce foundry he could have remained until the thing blew over and then either renewed operations here or left for other parts in perfect safety.

Four Pals Escape.

There were at least four men acting as stool pigeons for Johnson when the officer ran onto them. When they gained twenty-fourth street they scattered in all directions and Johnson was disappearing around corners when Morrissey came out of the alleyway. Johnson was unable to run fast as the policeman was soon able to catch up to him. In order to prevent him from making trouble he was covered with the officer's gun, and he quietly submitted to arrest. The police are hard at work on the case and are determined to break up what seems to be an organized gang of professional crooks.

"APOSTOLIC SUCCESSION."

Joseph F. Smith, Jr., Discourses to Large Audience in Ogden.

Before an audience that filled the Ogden tabernacle yesterday afternoon, Joseph F. Smith, Jr., delivered an address on "Apostolic Succession." He took up the question of succession to the presidency of the Mormon church, and through the revelations contained in the Doctrine and Covenants and church history disproved the claims of the Reorganized church that Joseph Smith, Jr., had been set apart and ordained by his father, Joseph Smith, the prophet, to succeed as the head of the church. Instead, he held that the proper authority, after the death of the prophet fell upon the twelve apostles, and that they in turn elected Brigham Young as the proper head of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

ON WAY TO HONOLULU.

Congressmen from Sixteen States Pass Through Ogden.

A party of congressmen from sixteen different states passed through Ogden on their way to Hawaii yesterday, where they will spend three weeks studying the conditions. Each committee of congress having anything to do with our relations with Hawaii was represented. During their stay in Hawaii they will be entertained by the government of the island, the legislature of which is now in session. Among those in the party are William W. Wilson, Charles McCarver and Joseph V. Graff of Illinois, A. L. Brink of Indiana, W. P. Heburn and J. P. Connors of Iowa, E. L. Littlefield of Maine, E. L. Hamilton of Michigan, Frederick C. Stevens of Minnesota, DeAlvin S. Alexander and John A. Fitzgerald of New York, George Morris of Nebraska, J. Warren Ketter and Ralph D. Cole of Ohio, A. B. Ketter of Pennsylvania, A. B. Capron of Rhode Island and James H. Davidson of Wisconsin.

All members of Naomi Rebekah lodge No. 1, and visiting members, are requested to attend the funeral of Sister Minnie Tate at the family residence, 738 East Third South street, Tuesday, April 30, at 2 p. m. By order of NELLIE M. MANNING, Noble Grand, MARIE C. NICKELSON, Secretary.

Our Grill Room at the Royal Cafe is open daily from 4 to 12 p. m.

We are pleased to note that our advertisements are attracting attention even in New York City, where millions are spent weekly in this work, and "a little millinery store" in Salt Lake and its doings is like one drop of water in a mighty ocean.

In thanking the editor of Printer's Ink for this compliment, we would also kindly say that advertising nowadays is of little value without the goods.

We have the goods, the prices, the styles, and the discerning people of these mountain states are fast finding it out. Call on or address,

BANKS, 115 South Main Street.

LOVEY FUND COMMITTEES

Indications That Ogden Elks and Press Club Members Will Do Their Work Well.

A meeting of the Lovey fund committees of the Elks and the Press club was held at the Elks' club rooms yesterday. The business portion of the city was divided into districts and a member from each of the two committees was named for each district. Following the preliminary work of mailing personal letters to prospective subscribers, an active canvass will be made. Lists and information concerning the work are being made out for the committees, who will be hard at work by the middle of the week. Several subscriptions have already been secured, and the indications are that there will be a big sale of both the de luxe and popular editions in Ogden. W. D. Brats of the Press club was appointed secretary for the joint committee, and J. H. Knauss of the Elks was named as treasurer. Two additional committees will be named, it being found necessary to make one more district than was at first thought necessary.

W. A. LANGFORD, Secretary.

QUEEN ABLE TO VISIT CIRCUS

Expected Hasn't Happened in Spanish Royal Family Up to Date.

Madrid, April 28.—Queen Victoria went driving this morning, and this evening attended a banquet at the palace in honor of Cardinal Garcia, bishop of Burgos, upon whose head King Alfonso today placed the red hat. The king never leaves the side of the queen now. He has abandoned all of his usual amusements. The dowager queen, Maria Christina, and the princesses are busily engaged in making additions to the jayette for the expected royal babe. A royal perambulator, a gorgeous specimen, arrived at the palace Saturday.

The queen is going about almost as busily as at any time since her wedding. Her favorite amusement recently has been in visiting the circus entertainments. She has been there three times within the past fortnight, and each time with a feeling of superstition sat in the same chair occupied twenty-one years ago by the queen mother just before the present king of Spain was born.

It has been settled that after the birth of the queen's child the royal family will go to Granja palace, where the king and queen spent their honeymoon.
